REGISTRAR OF VOTERS ANNOUNCES UPCOMING FPPC WORKSHOPS FOR PUBLIC OFFICIALS

SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIF – The County of Santa Clara Registrar of Voters announced today that it is hosting two Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) training events to help public officials comply with their obligations under the Political Reform Act.

These interactive training opportunities will provide the necessary tools to ensure transparency in campaign finance reporting and conflict of interests disclosure. The two-hour workshops will be held virtually using the Zoom application and are open to the public.

Workshop Dates and Times:

- Statement of Economic Interests (SEI) Filers (Form 700) – October 3, 2023
10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
Join via Zoom at this link: <https://sccgov-org.zoom.us/j/95889956614>

A training event to provide general information for public officials and designated employees who must file a Form 700. A detailed overview of how to complete each schedule of the Form 700 will be provided.

- Candidate and Treasurer Campaign Statements – October 3, 2023
2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Join via Zoom at this link: <https://sccgov-org.zoom.us/j/95325727153>

A training event to provide general information on candidate, political treasurer, and committee duties. Topics include initial campaign activities, contributions and expenditures, reporting requirements, advertising disclaimers, and post-election tasks.

For more information, contact Candidate Services at (408) 299-8639, or visit <https://sccvote.sccgov.org/candidates-measures>.
