

Motivational Interviewing

Kristin Dempsey, EdD, LMFT, LPCC is a licensed marriage and family therapist (LMFT) and professional clinical counselor (LPCC). She has provided psychotherapy in the Bay Area for almost 25 years in public non-profits and county mental health settings, schools, and medical clinics. Her current psychotherapy practice is located in San Francisco and Burlingame.

Dr. Dempsey's areas of clinical interest include treatments for co-occurring mental health and substance use disorders, complex trauma in childhood and adolescence, eating disorders, panic/anxiety, and many behavioral challenges such as anger management and impulse control disorders. She has worked with adults, senior adults, transitional age youth, adolescents, and children in individual, family, and group modalities.

In addition to clinical work, Dr. Dempsey trains providers in a number of evidence-based and promising practices. She is a member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers and has experience teaching and training cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT), cognitive behavior therapy for psychosis (CBTp), and dialectical behavior therapy (DBT). She is a master trainer for Applied Suicide Intervention Skills (ASIST), and has been trained in the Neurosequential Model of Therapeutics (NMT) to assess trauma impacts in youth and adults. Dr. Dempsey also provides additional programmatic consultation regarding behavioral health system redesign and implementation of evidence-based practices.

Dr. Dempsey is engaged in behavioral health workforce development research and organizational change projects. She is especially interested in investigating and promoting best practices to recruit and retain underrepresented clinicians in the mental health and substance abuse treatment fields.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Motivational interviewing (MI) provides us with a way to have conversations about change. In this course, participants will learn the basics of how to apply motivational interviewing to a number of typical as well as challenging clinical situations. Content covered in this training includes exploring the attitudes and approach of MI, learning the motivational interviewing process of change, and practicing the specific micro-skills necessary to successfully engage with clients. Examples of motivational interviewing will be provided via video and demonstration, and attendees will have opportunities to apply components of the model with sample client situations. Explicit examples of how motivational interviewing addresses Santa Clara County BHRS' core mission and vision will be explored throughout the training. Participants will also create beginning and simple action plans for using motivational interviewing, which will be used to guide ongoing coaching and feedback sessions.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

At the end of this workshop, attendees will be able to:

- Explain two ways in which the skills and/or spirit of MI helps contribute to the mission and vision of Santa Clara County Behavioral Health Services
- Summarize the four components of the "Spirit" of Motivational Interviewing.
- Define the four processes of Motivational Interviewing.
- Practice the five micro skills of Motivational Interviewing.
- Distinguish the difference between "preparatory" and "commitment" change talk.
- Plan how to immediately use at least two Motivational Interviewing skills in current work environment.
