MEMORANDUM

TO: All news outlets and the general public

FROM: Michelle A. Jorden, MD-Chief Medical Examiner-Coroner Mag

SUBJECT: Seeking Public Assistance to identify an Unidentified Person

DATE: March 14, 2019

The Santa Clara County Medical Examiner-Coroner's Office is seeking the public's assistance in identifying an unidentified man.

On the morning of 09/29/18, the decedent was found lying unresponsive on a pathway along the 1200 block of Piedmont Road in Milpitas. It was reported that he was a known transient (homeless) male that frequented this area. The cause and manner of death were deemed natural. Foul play is not suspected. He has medium length straight gray hair and wore a mustache and beard of similar color. The decedent has hazel/light brown eyes and his estimated height and weight is 71 inches tall and 115 pounds respectively. His teeth are natural and in good repair. The decedent appears between the ages of 55-70 and may be of Hispanic or Middle Eastern descent.

Despite forensic attempts to identify the man, he remains unidentified.

A Forensic Artist has created a sketch suitable for public dissemination. Please see attached sketch of the unidentified man.

If you have an information regarding the possible identity of this person, please contact the Medical Examiner-Coroner's Office Investigations Unit at 408-793-1900 extension 3.
