9:15 a.m. - 10:15 a.m.	Keynote Address: Trends in Child Welfare Dr. David Finkelhor , Director, Crimes against Children Research Center; Co-Director, Family Research Laboratory; and Professor of Sociology at the University of New Hampshire This presentation will discuss some recent positive trends on diverse and controversial child welfare topics such as teen sexual behavior, mental health, crime, family conflict, missing children, drug and alcohol usage, and bullying and child abuse. It will explore factors that have been proposed as important explanations for some of the improvements, and distinguish those that are most plausible. It will also discuss how research can be useful to keep policy from being hijacked by transient political impulses responding to high profile tragedies and misguided public anxieties.
10:15 a.m. - 10:45 a.m.	Break
10:45 a.m. - Noon	Plenary Session: Child-on-Child Crime Moderated by James Gibbons-Shapiro , Assistant District Attorney When the abuser is also a child, how do we address both the protection of the victim, and the consequences for and issues with the perpetrator? Is the current way of doing things the way it has to be? How do we make sure that we are addressing the disproportionality in the system? A rock star panel of experts in the field of juvenile justice and child perpetrators of crime will explore these issues and their hidden challenges in this often overlooked area of child abuse. Panelists: LaRon Dennis , Deputy District Attorney; Hon. Katherine Lucero , Supervising Judge, Juvenile Justice Court; Susannah Folcik , Social Services Supervisor, Department of Family and Children's Services; Michelle Fernandez , Juvenile Probation Supervisor
