8:55 a.m. - 10:10 a.m.	Keynote Address by Dr. Colleen Friend, Director, Cal State LA Child Abuse and Family Violence Institute, Professor of Communication Disorders at Cal State LA, 2017 winner of the APSAC Professional of the Year Award, and a long standing member of the Board of the APSAC State Chapter, CAPSAC Understanding Interviewing from the Victim's Point of View - Helping Child Abuse Victims Make Sense of their Experiences Despite what we know about trauma, it can still be hard for professionals to be accepting of victims' many struggles. This presentation will address why victims often do not tell about their experiences. If they do, they may not give a full account, and the details may not emerge in a linear style. As interviewers and professional helpers, we need to understand why this happens and how we can adjust our interventions to facilitate healing and obtain whatever disclosure there may be available.
10:10 a.m. - 10:35 a.m.	Networking Break
10:35 a.m. - 10:45 a.m.	Volunteer Spotlight: Bikers Against Child Abuse volunteers work to empower victims of abuse.
10:45 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.	Plenary Session Address by David D. Love, LMFT, Executive Director and Founder of Valley Community Counseling Services, Inc., Member of APSAC, and the state chapter, CAPSAC Assessing and Treating Juveniles with Sexual Behavior Problems The child abuse treatment field, mental health services, probation services, and schools often identify young people with problematic sexual behaviors. This ranges from sexually abusive preadolescents and sexually inappropriate juveniles to youthful child molesters and rapists. The workshop will separate normal sexual exploration and sexual reactivity from sexual exploitation. It will explain why young people become sex offenders. Treatment strategies for each category of sexual issues in young people will be identified.
Thank you to the California Professional Society on the Abuse of Children (CAPSAC) who generously sponsored this morning's speakers. Visit the tables in the lobby to learn more about CAPSAC membership opportunities.

1:15 p.m. - 2:30 p.m. East Gallery	Workshop A1: The Three R's of Children Exposed to Domestic Violence: Recognizing, Reporting and Responding Lori Campanella Durand, LCSW, Lucille Packard Children's Hospital Colsaria Henderson, Director of Programs, Next Door Solutions to Domestic Violence Angel Kelly, LCSW, ER Coordinator, Department of Family and Children's Services Jennifer Klassen, Coordinator of Student Wellness and Support Services, Franklin McKinley School District Dan Rodriguez, Captain, Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office Kimberly Warsaw, Deputy County Counsel, Child Dependency Unit A multidisciplinary panel of experts will explore the impact of domestic violence on children and the thorny question of how and when to involve the system when children are exposed to domestic violence. The discussion will focus on educators, medical providers and law enforcement who become aware that domestic violence occurred in front of children. When and what to report to DFCS? What are the benefits and what are the unintended consequences that may result? The panel will address these questions and more. Moderated by Cindy Seeley Hendrickson, Assistant District Attorney
1:15 p.m. - 2:30 p.m. West Gallery	Workshop A2: Cultural Humility: A Lifelong Perspective and Practice Mary Kasik, CASA Specialist, Child Advocates of Silicon Valley Annie Liu, MFT Cultural Humility is the willingness to challenge your own knowledge and assumptions about another culture. By taking a respectful approach to learning about all cultures, we can develop openness and understanding that will serve us throughout our lives. In this session, participants will learn about "cultural humility" and why it is important to practice. Through interactive activities, participants will address their own privileges and biases and learn to bring this perspective into their life and work. *Pre-registration required. Limit 75
2:30 pm - 2:45 p.m.	Networking Break and Afternoon Refreshments
2:45 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. East Gallery	Workshop B1: The Family Court Conundrum Kimberly Nielsen, LMFT, Director, Family Court Services Judge Roberta Hayashi, Family Court Judge Detective Brian Spears, SJPD Sexual Assault Investigations Unit, Crimes Against Children Miday Tovar, SSA/DFCS Emergency Response Supervisor Throughout the child abuse justice system, the tension is high between the skepticism that arises with allegations of child abuse arising during Family Court proceedings (is one parent using false allegations as a sword in Family Court?) and the clear reality that Family Court proceedings are a reasonable part of the response to true allegations of child abuse. This panel will delve into that tension, explore how it is resolved today, and consider how we might better resolve it going forward. Moderated by James Gibbons-Shapiro, Assistant District Attorney
2:45 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. West Gallery	Workshop B2: Medical Red Flags: Warning Signs for Child Physical and Sexual Abuse in Young Children, and Medical Resources for Child Abuse Victims in Santa Clara County Catherine L.
