PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: 4/15/2022
FROM: Bay Area Election Officials

BAY AREA ELECTION OFFICIALS JOIN FORCES TO ASSURE PUBLIC TRUST IN ELECTIONS

Local election officials are your trusted source of non-partisan election information.

The Registrars of Voters around the bay have created a greater Bay Area coalition to deliver accurate, current, and transparent election information to our nearly five million voters. Our goal is to highlight the security surrounding elections, including the audits we conduct to assure accurate and secure elections.

We are seeking partnerships with journalists, reporters, and community groups to help us deliver accurate, non-partisan, and timely information regarding elections.

Democracy is fragile and public trust in elections is essential to, and the hallmark of, a well-functioning system of government.

Ongoing disinformation campaigns misguide the public with unfounded claims regarding the certified systems we use to conduct accurate and transparent elections. These malicious efforts erode voters' trust, faith, and confidence in elections and may dissuade voters from participating in future elections.

Your local county election official is your trusted source of legitimate election information. If you hear questionable claims regarding an election, reach out to your local elections office, so we can clarify it for you. You can also refer to our websites and follow our official accounts on social media. For more information, visit our website; BayAreaVotes (www.sccvote.org/bayareavotes) or our Facebook page; Bay Area Votes.
